RE: Complaint of BellSouth – Enforcement of Interconnection
 Agreement between BellSouth Telecommunications, Inc. and NuVox Communications, Inc.
Docket No. 2005-82-C, Our File No. 528-10304

Dear Mr. Terreni:

As you may recall, NuVox submitted several proposed prefilings and other deadlines to the Hearing Officer for consideration some time ago. Those testimony dates were based upon the scheduling and taking of one or more witness depositions. At this point in time, the parties and counsel for the witness are in the process of trying to schedule a mutually agreeable time and date for any such depositions to take place. Thus, the testimony can only be filed following the initial deposition.

Accordingly, NuVox requests that testimony deadlines be suspended until the parties schedule a deposition, at which time the parties will submit another revised schedule for the remainder of the Docket.

With kind regards, I am

Yours truly,

 John J. Pringle, Jr.
